Ian Saunders sends these notes and pictures from Audlem:

The weather was kind throughout Saturday and remained so for the boat crew hog roast dinner, but rain arrived during the latter part of Sunday afternoon. The towpath was very busy with visitors early on Sunday afternoon following the arrival of close to 300 vintage cars, etc. in the field at Audlem around 11:00 am. The Club stand was again in attendance. The majority of the boats departed during the course of Monday.
